The City of Longview Volunteer Center seeks to improve the community by matching volunteers with opportunities. The Volunteer Center can help you find information about volunteering within a city department, working with various volunteer programs, or getting involved with one of the many community organizations throughout the Greater Longview area.

Volunteer Spotlight:

Citywide Cleanup - October 1, 2011

It's time to volunteer for our Fall Citywide Cleanup! Gather your family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers to take part in beautifying Longview. Tire and Electronics Recycling is also available for Longview residents, please bring a water bill to show your address. Litter pick-up supplies will be provided. Read more... [2]

Circles of East Texas Volunteer Ally - Throughout the Year

Through a project called Circles™ of East Texas, the City of Longview Partners in Prevention is seeking adult volunteers to help make a powerful difference in the lives of local families. Volunteers in the project are known as "Allies" because they form intentional friendships with a family in poverty and join them in a quest to self-sufficiency.
